Note:
The Draw Shot Challenge (DSC) is the average distance of all the individual Last Stone Draws (LSD), which were delivered by a team during the round robin. The two least favourable results will be eliminated before calculating the average distance. The team with the lesser DSC receives the higher ranking. If the DSCs are equal then the team with the best non-equal counting LSD receives the higher ranking. In the case where all counting LSDs are equal, the team ranked higher in the official WCF World Rankings is ranked higher.

World Men's Championship play-off games set to resume

After a complete event shut down and extensive COVID testing regimen, the World Men's Curling Championship 2021 has been given permission by Alberta Health to continue the competition.

The championship was paused on Friday (9 April) night after three positive (and asymptomatic) tests involving teams not participating in the play-offs came to light.

A further fourth positive test involving an athlete from a play-off team was received on Saturday (10 April) morning.

All athletes, coaches and event officials deemed to be in close contact with athletes within the bubble, were tested on Saturday morning, with every test coming back negative.

Additional medical guidelines were put in place ahead of the opening game of the day in relation to the fourth positive test and further negative test that individual received to allow them to compete.

Today's schedule has been adapted to allow for the championship's completion and will feature United States versus Switzerland in the 3v6 Qualification game at 11:00. That will be followed by the two semi-final games at 16:00, then finally both medal games will take place simultaneously at 21:00.

All games times are Mountain Daylight Time (MDT) which is Universal Coordinated Time (UTC) -7.

Broadcast details for the remainder of the championship will be confirmed later today.

The World Curling Federation and Curling Canada will continue to be guided by professional medical advice from Alberta Health and the event medical officers to ensure the continued health and safety of the athletes, officials and event staff and the host city of Calgary is maintained.

World Men's Curling Championship play-off games on hold due to positive COVID-19 tests

During the rigorous exit testing procedures put in place for the World Men's Curling Championship 2021, positive COVID-19 cases have been identified. The World Curling Federation, Curling Canada and Alberta Health are now following the COVID-19 response plan for the championship.

The World Curling Federation's priority is to ensure the health and safety of all participants of the World Men's Curling Championship 2021. As a result, the 09:00 MDT play-off game between United States and Switzerland will not be played at the scheduled time.

All playoff teams will undergo testing on Saturday morning, and until the results are clear and it's known that the players are safe, no further games will be played.

As per the comprehensive health protocols prepared for the championship, in cooperation with Curling Canada and Alberta Health, those involved have been isolated and contact tracing is now in place.

With respect for the privacy of the impacted individuals, the event participants have been informed internally of the situation, but no details of these individuals will be released publicly at this time.

The World Curling Federation and Curling Canada have robust health and safety protocols in place under the guidance of federal, provincial, and local public health officials that we continue to follow during these championships.
